Date: 26 September, 2025

Dhaka: DHL Express, the world's leading international express services provider, announces price adjustments today that will take effect on January 1, 2026. The average increase in Bangladesh will be 4.9%.

"We remain committed to helping our customers navigate the complexities of the current global trade landscape, which has been significantly impacted by recent geopolitical shifts," said Md. Miarul Haque Managing Director, DHL Express Bangladesh. "With this annual price adjustment, we can continue to enhance our network's resilience and adaptability, ensuring consistent support for our customers' businesses irrespective of external factors."

DHL Express adjusts prices annually, taking into consideration inflation and currency dynamics, as well as administrative costs related to regulatory and security measures. National and international authorities regularly update these measures in approximately 220 countries and territories that DHL Express serves. Depending on local conditions, price adjustments will vary by country.
