

DHL Express makes key changes to Asia Pacific management board

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 10 January, 2024

Dhaka: DHL Express, one of the world's leading international express service providers, on January 8, announced several strategic appointment changes for Asia Pacific.

The company has appointed Yung C Ooi as Asia Pacific's Senior Vice President for Commercial. Yung takes over from Yasmin Khan, who has entered her well-deserved retirement after 23 years at the DHL Group. Yung was most recently the Country Manager for DHL Express Taiwan.

Effective January 1, 2024, Andy Chiang transitions from Head of Global Strategic Finance for DHL Express to Managing Director for DHL Express Hong Kong and Macau. Ji Hun (Michael) Han is the new Managing Director for DHL Express Korea, as he takes over from Byung Koo Han, who has retired after 16 years at DHL Group. Succeeding Yung C Ooi is Chee Choong Ng as the Managing Director for DHL Express Taiwan. Prior to this, Chee Choong was the Managing Director for DHL Express Hong Kong and Macau.

"Asia Pacific is a key driver for global growth. There are tremendous opportunities here that we are keen to leverage," said Ken Lee, CEO for Asia Pacific, DHL Express.

"As we prepare for global trade recovery, I am confident that the team will lead the way in our region. We always take pride in our commitment to nurturing talent from within. This is a testament to our dedication to fostering growth and offering rewarding career progression opportunities within our company."

DHL Express is currently present in over 40 countries and territories in Asia Pacific with a TDI-revenue market share of 57 per cent. It employs about 29,000 people in the region and serves about 900,000 customers.

- T