

Emirates offers special menu during Eid Al Adha

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 07 July, 2022

Dubai: In celebration of Eid Al Adha from 9 to 12 July and honouring its proud Emirati heritage, Emirates will serve traditional and much-loved Eid dishes across all cabins. Eid meals will be served on more than 60 routes departing Dubai; to the Gulf and Middle East region, Africa, UK and Europe, Far East, and India.

Economy Class customers will be delighted by a selection of Chicken Biryani or Lamb Gabuli for main course, followed by the iconic Aseeda Eid pudding or classic date cake for dessert. First and Business Class passengers will enjoy Hamour Machbous, Chicken Biryani, or Lamb Gabuli, followed by decadent Baklava cheese cake or a fragrant cardamom cake. A380 on-board lounges will also be serving a selection of special Emirati-style pastries. All customers travelling on the first and second day of Eid, will receive a complimentary sweet treat to take away.

Passengers planning to travel over the busy Eid period are reminded to arrive to the airport at least 3 hours before their flight departure, and take advantage of the many ways to streamline their journey including online and remote check-in options, self check-in kiosks and smart gates at Dubai Airport.

Emirates now operates 21 weekly flights from Dhaka and via Dubai offers convenient connections to over 130 destinations worldwide.
