

Emirates ramp ups flights ahead Eid Al Adha

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 24 June, 2023

Dubai: With the upcoming Eid Al Adha celebrations, Emirates is layering on additional flights to key regional destinations to meet significant travel demand during this special period.

For a busy travel period for Eid Al Adha, Emirates has deployed an additional 34 flights to popular destinations across the region. With an estimated 78,000 people from across the region expected to travel with Emirates during the Eid Al Adha six-day break.

Emirates has recorded a 20% increase in demand in comparison to 2022 with a large percentage of its customers heading to Bangladesh, India, Pakistan, Thailand, Philippines, the UK, France and the US, as well as across the region to Lebanon, Jordan and Dubai.

Passengers will enjoy the traditional treats of Eid from 28 to 30 June. On select outbound flights from Dubai and all flights across the Gulf and Levant, classic Eid dishes will be served across all classes.

Emirates now operates 21 weekly flights between Dubai and Dhaka, and via Dubai conveniently connects over 130 destinations worldwide.

