

Emirates restarts flights to Phuket

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 02 June, 2021

Dubai: Emirates will resume four weekly services to the resort island of Phuket of Thailand from 2nd July 2021, with the re-opening of the popular destination to international tourists. Furthermore, those who are vaccinated against COVID-19 will enjoy hassle-free travel, with no quarantine on arrival. Emirates also resumed flights to Bangkok in September 2020, providing daily service.

The Dubai-Phuket route will be operated with a Boeing 777-300ER in a three-class configuration, offering premium services in First and Business Class as well as Economy Class.

Flights to Phuket can be booked by visiting their website or through preferred travel agents. For more details on entry requirements to Phuket and mandatory documentation for non-Thai nationals, customers can check the travel requirements page on emirates.com.

Emirates has been gradually rebuilding its global network, in a safe and sustainable manner and has resumed passenger services to over 120 destinations, allowing travelers to conveniently connect to the Americas, Europe, Africa, Middle East, and the Asia Pacific via Dubai.

Emirates has introduced measures on the ground throughout all touchpoints and onboard to provide its passengers with the highest safety and hygiene standards at every step of the journey. The airline has also recently introduced contactless technology to ease the customer journey through Dubai airport.

Emirates offers generous and flexible booking policies, an extension of its multi-risk insurance cover, and helping loyal customers retain their miles and tier status.

Emirates Related News:

- Emirates strengthens Italy operations in July, re-launches services to Venice
- Emirates will serve 12 US gateways following the launch of a new service to Miami
- Emirates enhances vaccine transport capabilities to meet the growing demand
- Emirates to recover 90% of its pre-pandemic network during summer