Dubai: Emirates will ramp up its global operations with the restart of services to four destinations, including: Bali (1 May), London Stansted (1 August), Rio de Janeiro (2 November), and Buenos Aires (2 November). The airline has also announced it will boost services to Nigeria, Mauritius and Singapore to serve market demand.

From May 1, 2022 Emirates will operate five weekly flights to Bali and will also scale up its operations from July 1, 2022 to serve the island destination with a daily service.

Starting from August 1, 2022 the airline will fly five times a week to London Stansted and from September 1, it will increase services to offer a daily flight. By October 2022, the airline will be serving the UK with 110 weekly flight to London Heathrow, London Stansted, Gatwick, Manchester, Birmingham, Newcastle, Glasgow.

Emirates will operate four weekly flights to Buenos Aires via Rio de Janeiro starting from November 2, 2022. From 1 February 2023, the airline will scale up its operations to a daily service.

With the resumption of services to four more destinations, Emirates' network will span to more than 130 destinations, across six continents. The airline now operates 21 weekly flights to Dhaka.
