

Emirates scoops 5 global accolades the ULTRA and APEX

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 05 November, 2022

Dubai: Emirates has received five global and regional awards from two prestigious travel and aviation ceremonies recently, winning the titles of ‘Best Airline in the World’ and ‘Best Airline in the Middle East’ at the ULTRAs 2022 awards, and a further ‘World Class Award’, ‘5 Star Global Official Airline Rating’, and ‘Passenger Choice Award for Best Global Entertainment’ at APEX 2023 awards.

Based on a combination of certified passenger feedback and professional audits, Emirates was honoured with a ‘World Class Award’ for safety, well-being, sustainability, service, and inclusiveness, a ‘5 Star Global Official Airline Rating’ recognising all aspects of the global airline, and a ‘Passenger Choice Award for Best Global Entertainment’ for the best-in-class ice inflight entertainment system, at the APEX/IFSA expo in Long Beach, California .APEX is one of the world’s largest international airline associations, hosting an annual industry awards ceremony since 2018.

At the ULTRAs 2022 award ceremony in the Pan Pacific London, Emirates was honoured with two top awards - ‘Best Airline in the World’ and ‘Best Airline in the Middle East.’ Emirates was highlighted for its industry-leading services, global network, and best-in-class travel experiences, at the ceremony .The ULTRA awards are also decided by consumer votes, an international community of two million travellers who have recognised Emirates as the leading airline in the world for luxury travel.

Emirates which has been operating to Bangladesh since 1986 presently serves with 21 flights a week and via Dubai connects to over 130 destinations across the globe.