- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 19 June, 2025

Dubai: Emirates, participated in the 55th edition of the International Paris Airshow, ending today (19 June), after an over 15-year hiatus from the show and showcased its newest aircraft-the Airbus A350 -featuring the airline's next-generation cabin design, latest interiors, and technologies.

The Emirates A350 on display features three spacious cabin classes including 32 next-generation Business Class lie-flat seats, 21 Premium Economy seats, and 259 generously pitched Economy Class seats.

Visitors at the Paris Airshow could get a glimpse of the airline's new and enhanced 'fly better' experience including more space and storage with extra high ceilings and wider aisles in all classes; next generation Business Class cabin with 1-2-1 seat configuration; latest generation of in-flight entertainment with a cinematic viewing experience, enhanced cabin lighting, faster Wi-Fi, and improved seat ergonomics.

By the end of this year, the Emirates A350 is expected to serve 17 destinations. The airline has welcomed 7 A350 aircraft with 58 more units to join its fleet over the coming years.
