Date: 03 January, 2021

Dubai: Emirates deploys its latest flagship A380 aircraft featuring new premium economy seats and luxurious enhancements across all cabins to London Heathrow. Starting from 4 January, passengers flying between Dubai and London Heathrow can experience Emirates' latest A380.

Emirates recently unveiled its latest A380 with brand new premium economy seats that offer a generous seat pitch of up to 40 inches. Additionally, the new A380 offers newly designed seats in economy class, enhancements to its popular A380 First and Business Class including its signature Shower Spa and Onboard Lounge, and refreshed colors and fittings across all cabins.

Until more Premium Economy seats enter its inventory, the airline intends to offer these as spot upgrades for its customers on a discretionary basis.

Emirates currently serves London Heathrow with 5 daily flights of which 4 are operated with an A380. The airline also operates 10 flights a week to Manchester and daily flights to both Birmingham and Glasgow. Emirates presently serves 99 cities across the world and operates double daily to and from Dhaka.
