

Empire brings world renowned watch brands to Bangladesh

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 18 April, 2022

Empire watch & Co, a sister concern of Saco Watch Company is the distributor of world-renowned Swiss watches brands like Aerowatch, Mathey-Tissot, Cornavin, Claude Bernard, and Richelieu in Bangladesh. Empire formally launched these premium brands at its newly opening showroom at city's Iqbal centre yesterday (April 17).

Mrs Nahid Farzana, Corporate Affairs director of Saco Watch Company was present as chief guest while Prof. sebastien Rousseau, co-creator of Time Research Experience & Ikramur Rahman, the initiator of the company were present respectively as special guests.

They said, this will add a luxury watch set up by Ekram Watches & Co which has created a milestone in the Bangladeshi timepiece industry.

Besides the wrist watches, Swiss "Karen D'H" brand pens will be also available here. Regular office pens range from Rs 1,900 to Rs 2,900, and luxury fine writing pens and fountain pens from Rs 19,000-6,000.

Wooden pencils made by Karen D'H Geneva and color pencils and acrylic pens are also available here at low prices.

Prices for Japanese timepieces start from Tk10,000 up to Tk 80,000, depending on the various movements and complications. K&C provides two years' international warranty from the date of purchase.

Ikram thought that new customers would be able to experience the quality of five Swiss watch brands Aerowatch, Mathey-Tissot, Cornavin, Claude Bernard and Richelieu as exclusive distributors for the local market. Moreover, the attractive market prices of these watches range from $100 to $800.

Empire Watch retails world-famous, luxurious Swiss & Japanese watch brands locally and imports the timepieces to Bangladesh also.
