

Flyadeal launches direct flights between Jeddah, Dhaka from October 22

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 21 October, 2025

Dhaka: Saudi Arabia's low-cost carrier Flyadeal is set to begin operations on Jeddah-Dhaka route starting October 22, 2025, marking the airline's entry into the Bangladesh market.

Initially, Flyadeal will operate two weekly flights between the two cities. According to the schedule, Flight F3 9112 will depart Jeddah at 1:30 am local time, while the return service, Flight F3 9113, will depart Dhaka at 1:00 pm local time.

Although a budget airline, Flyadeal will offer complimentary meal service on board the Dhaka route. The carrier has also announced a generous baggage allowance for travelers:

- Onward (DAC-JED): 30 kg check-in baggage + 7 kg hand carry
- Return (JED-DAC): 46 kg check-in baggage + 7 kg hand carry

The new service is expected to strengthen connectivity between Saudi Arabia and Bangladesh, catering to both expatriate workers and leisure travelers seeking affordable air travel options.

- T