Date: 10 August, 2025

Dhaka: Golden Tulip The Grandmark Dhaka has launched a special swimming training program for children and adults.

Located at Banani in the capital, the star chain hotel is now offering swimming lessons on its rooftop swimming pool for individuals aged six and above.

Under the guidance of experienced instructors, participants can learn to swim in a safe and joyful environment, said a release.

The training classes are held on Fridays and Saturdays every week at Golden Tulip The Grandmark Dhaka's rooftop pool.

Separate sessions are arranged for children and adults to ensure a tailored and comfortable learning experience for all age groups, added the release.

The package comprises a total of 16 classes and three practice sessions. For ages six to 11, the program costs BDT 15,000, and for ages 12 and above BDT 18,000.

Experienced instructors conduct each class to help students overcome their fear of water and master basic swimming techniques in a fun and engaging way, concluded the release.
