

Gulf Air marks decade of service to Russia

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 07 November, 2024

Manama: Gulf Air, the national carrier of the kingdom of Bahrain, recently celebrated a decade of service to Russia, with the route first launched on October 26, 2013.

The airline operates daily non-stop flights from Bahrain International Airport to Moscow using A320neo and A321neo aircraft. In addition to Moscow, Gulf Air provides convenient connections to popular destinations such as Thailand, the Maldives, and Saudi Arabia, according to news agency.

The airline's modern fleet features reclining seats, up-to-date in-flight entertainment, and a range of international dining options in both the Falcon Gold and Economy classes.

Flights depart from Bahrain International Airport at 1.30am Bahrain time from Sunday to Wednesday, and at 9am Bahrain time on Thursday through Saturday.

This schedule provides passengers with flexible travel options, according to a company statement.
