

Hong Kong to host 2025 WTA gala

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 01 February, 2025

Manila : In the heart of Asia, where tradition blends seamlessly with innovation and skyscrapers dominate the skyline, Hong Kong proudly takes center stage as the host of the prestigious World Travel Awards Asia & Oceania Gala Ceremony 2025.

Set for October 13, 2025, at the renowned InterContinental Grand Stanford Hong Kong, this highly anticipated event will honor the region's finest in travel and tourism while showcasing the dynamic energy and timeless charm of this iconic city.

A Vibrant Host City

For travelers seeking a destination that offers everything—from world-class dining to breathtaking natural landscapes, rich cultural heritage, and cutting-edge modernity—Hong Kong stands as the ultimate choice. This vibrant city blends East and West, tradition and innovation, urban energy and serene escapes, making it a paradise for every kind of tourist.

Food Lover's Paradise

Hong Kong is a dream for foodies, offering everything from Michelin-starred restaurants to authentic street food delights. Indulge in dim sum at Tim Ho Wan, savor roast goose at Yat Lok, or explore the bustling dai pai dongs (street stalls) serving classic Cantonese comfort food. Whether it's gourmet international cuisine or a humble bowl of wonton noodles, Hong Kong satisfies every palate.

Shopper's Wonderland

From luxury malls like IFC and Harbour City to bargain-friendly street markets such as the Ladies' Market and Temple Street Night Market, Hong Kong is a shopping mecca. Visitors can find everything from high-end designer brands to unique local crafts and antiques in districts like Central, Mong Kok, and Tsim Sha Tsui.

Culture and Heritage

History and culture enthusiasts will love exploring Hong Kong's rich heritage, from the ancient Man Mo Temple and Wong Tai Sin Temple to the colonial-era architecture of Tai Kwun. The city's museums, such as the Hong Kong Museum of History, offer deep insights into its past, while traditional fishing villages like Tai O showcase a different side of Hong Kong.

Thrill-Seeker's Playground

For adventure lovers, Hong Kong offers exciting outdoor experiences beyond the urban skyline. Hike the famous Dragon's Back Trail for stunning coastal views, take on the thrilling cliffside via ferrata at Tung Lung Island, or ride the iconic Ngong Ping 360 cable car for a breathtaking aerial journey to the Tian Tan Buddha.

Celebrating Excellence in Travel and Tourism

The World Travel Awards Asia & Oceania Gala Ceremony is a pinnacle event in the industry, recognizing the achievements of leading travel brands, destinations, and organizations across Asia and Oceania. As the host, Hong Kong not only showcases its own allure but also serves as a platform to honor the best in hospitality, aviation, tourism, and beyond. From luxury resorts on pristine islands to innovative travel technologies shaping the future, the ceremony underscores the region's pivotal role in global tourism.

As Hong Kong prepares to welcome industry leaders, influencers, and travelers from around the globe, anticipation builds for an evening of celebration, networking, and recognition. Against the backdrop of Hong Kong's iconic skyline and the harbor's shimmering waters, the 2025 World Travel Awards Gala promises to be a memorable occasion, highlighting the city's status as a premier destination for both leisure and business.

Hong Kong's selection as the host of the World Travel Awards Asia & Oceania Gala 2025 underscores its position as a cultural, commercial, and hospitality hub in Asia. With its blend of tradition and modernity, vibrant energy, and world-class venues, Hong Kong sets the stage for an extraordinary celebration of excellence in travel and tourism.
