Date: 17 November, 2024

Dhaka: Renowned hotelier Faisal Khan Abdullah is currently offering consultancy services to several hotels of Sylhet's hospitality market.

He is currently advising Sylhet Paradise Inn and Grand Khalif Hotel Hamama as a consultant in the popular travel destination of the country.

Abdullah is highly regarded in Sylhet's hospitality sector, known for his integrity and strong relationships with clients and colleagues, as well as his commitment to excellence that continues to make a positive impact on the region's hotel industry, said a release.

He began his career as Assistant Manager of Sales at Sylhet's Rose View Hotel, where he worked for two years. Afterwards, he moved to Hotel Metro International, where he worked as Operations Manager for nearly five years.

Later, he joined Hotel Valley Garden as Deputy General Manager, where he successfully developed the property's business, earning the respect of his team, added the release.

Abdullah then took on the role of General Manager at Hotel Grand View.

Even amid the challenges following the Covid-19 pandemic, he successfully opened Grand Mostafa Hotel Ababil, contributing significantly to its launch, according to the release.

It may be mentioned here, Faisal Khan Abdullah studied hotel management at TAFE, Sydney, New South Wales. Upon completion, he chose to return to Bangladesh and share his expertise to make a difference in the country's hospitality industry, concluded the release.
