Dhaka: IHG hotels in Bangladesh—InterContinental Dhaka, Crowne Plaza Dhaka Gulshan and Holiday Inn Dhaka City Centre—launched Prestige Cards for members of Tiger Golf Club (TGC) through a ceremony held at InterContinental Dhaka recently.

The Prestige Cards open the door to an array of exceptional benefits and privileges at InterContinental Dhaka, Crowne Plaza Dhaka Gulshan and Holiday Inn Dhaka City Centre, said a release.

Ashwani Nayar, Area General Manager, IHG—Southwest Asia and General Manager, InterContinental Dhaka, revealed and handed over the Prestige Cards to Heru H Subolo, Ambassador of the Republic of Indonesia to Dhaka and President of Tiger Golf Club and Sarah Cooke, British High Commissioner to Dhaka and Alternate President of Tiger Golf Club. Other executive members of Tiger Golf Club were also present on the occasion.

“These benefits are crafted to provide the club members with exceptional value and unforgettable experiences, whether they are planning a staycation, dining out or enjoying wellness and fitness services at our hotels. We look forward to welcoming them to our hotels and providing them with unforgettable experiences,” said Ashwani Nayar at the ceremony.

Prestige cardholders will be able to avail exclusive benefits such as discounts on accommodation, food and beverage, wellness facilities, banqueting and on access to Balaka Executive Lounge at Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport.

Tiger Golf Club, comprising members who are foreign expats, diplomats and local golf enthusiasts, hosted a dinner and get-together at the ceremony.
