

IndiGo announces Tbilisi as new destination

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 02 July, 2023

IndiGo on Saturday (July 1) introduced flight services to Georgia's Tbilisi effective August 8, 2023, the airline stated in a press release.

The services are available for bookings as well. The introduction of these new flights caters to the rising travel demand for Georgia while also benefiting business travelers, said IndiGo in a press release.

The new connectivity has the potential to grow trade and bolster economic and cultural ties between the two nations.

"Tbilisi is also part of the 'Silk Route' which will further enhance the flow of trade from the city," said IndiGo.

"We are thrilled to announce Tbilisi amongst our new destinations in our expanding 6E network, opening up exciting international travel opportunities. Georgia is now amongst the favored & sought after holiday destinations for Indian travelers," said Vinay Malhotra, Head of Global Sales at IndiGo.

He also said, with the launch of these flights, IndiGo aims to not only strengthen the connectivity between India and Georgia but also increase tourism and foster potential business collaborations. Customers who wish to plan their travel can book tickets via IndiGo's official website.

