

Love is in the air and on the ground with Emirates!

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 14 February, 2022

Dubai: Travellers flying with Emirates today, whether headed for their romantic getaway or the mid-term school break, can look forward to some Valentine's Day goodies to sweeten their journey in the air, and on the ground in Emirates' dedicated lounges for premium customers.

The airline offers Valentine's Day inspired sweets like brownies and mini red velvet cupcakes as take-aways to customers in all cabin classes. Customers seeking a last minute Valentine's Day gift or surprise, can enjoy a 15% discount on duty free items from Emirates RED. Emirates' ice entertainment system offers exciting Classic romance movies including: Sleepless in Seattle, A Star is Born (2018), Gone with the Wind, Doctor Zhivago, Casablanca, From Here to Eternity and others. Customers can also enjoy specially curated music playlists - Love is in the Air and Romantic Moments - offering 123 tracks from top artists and balladeers such as Michael Bublé, UB40, Celine Dion, Lionel Richie, Al Green and more.

Emirates has also re-opened its popular A380 Onboard Lounge, with safety measures in place to ensure customers can socialise at 40,000 feet, and enjoy snacks, cocktails and company during their flight with peace of mind.

On ground, First and Business Class customers and eligible Emirates Skywards frequent flyers, can enjoy a range of Valentine's Day inspired desserts such as chocolate hearts, heart-shaped mud cake, chocolate-covered strawberries with coconut, and orange ginger panna cotta with berries and pistachios. These variety of treats are available in the 19 dedicated Emirates lounges already re-opened across its network, as well as its signature Emirates Lounges in Dubai airport. All lounges serve a range of complimentary premium drinks.

Emirates serves Bangladesh with 21 weekly flights and is the only airline to first class service to and from the country.
