Bogura: Momo Inn, the high-end experience-driven city retreat in Bogura, has appointed Jewel Khan as its new General Manager.

Jewel Khan has been working in the hospitality industry for nearly two decades. He has worked with leading hotels and resorts in ten different countries.

The early stages of Jewel's professional career were spent with Starwood, Jumeirah, Marriott, Shangri-La, Raffles, IHG and Kempinski Hotel and Resort as he worked his way up from being a casual waiter to Area Director of F&B with Doubletree by Hilton Hotels.

He then moved to Trinidad and Tobago at Le Grand Courlan Spa Resort and Grafton Beach Resort as Cluster Resort Manager and achieved his first General Manager's role in 2016.

During his career, Jewel has taken part in a takeover, three rebranding, two renovations, and the opening of five different hotels.
