

New committee of AOAB takes charge

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 07 March, 2023

Dhaka: The newly elected committee of Aviation Operators Association of Bangladesh (AOAB) has taken charge for the year 2023-2025. Anjan Chowdhury, Managing Director of Square Air Ltd and Mofizur Rahman, Managing Director of NOVOAIR, have been elected as President and Secretary General respectively.

On March 7, the new executive committee formally took charge at the AOAB office.

The following members have been elected various responsibilities as members of the executive committee: Mostafa Kamal of Meghna Aviation Ltd, Z Mahmud Mamun of Impress Aviation Ltd, Khandakar A F M Mohibullah of South Asian Airlines Ltd, Raquibul Kabir of Bangla International Airlines Ltd, Safwan Sobhan of Bashundhara Airways Ltd, Abdullah Al Zahir Shapan of Blue Flying Academy, Md Arifur Rahman of Sky Capital Airlines Ltd, Parvez Rahman of BRB Air Ltd, and Mohammed Younus of Galaxy Flying Academy Ltd.

It may be mentioned here that Aviation Operators Association of Bangladesh (AOAB) was established on February 25, 2012 for the development of the aviation sector of the country.

- T