

Novo Cargo holds business development seminar with KOTRA, KOICA

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 16 January, 2021

Dhaka: Novo Cargo Services Ltd organized a farewell dinner in honor of Korean trade representative Jong Won Kim, Director General, Korea Trade-investment Promotion Agency \(KOTRA\) Dhaka, as well as a business development discussion seminar at Sky View Restaurant at the company's head office Novo Tower on January 13, 2021.

Ambassador of Korea to Bangladesh Lee Jang-Keun; Doh Young-ah, Country Director of Korea International Corporation Agency (KOICA), Bangladesh, Bhutan and India; and SM Rahman, Managing Director, Novo Cargo Services Ltd, among others, were present on the occasion.

Participants have discussed the further development of bilateral trades between Bangladesh and Korea. The Ambassador of Korea to Bangladesh expressed his satisfaction with the leadership of the honorable Prime Minister of Bangladesh and appreciated the performance of the country in respect of GDP growth despite the Covid-19 pandemic.

Jong-won Kim of kotra, in his farewell speech, expressed his deep satisfaction with his stay in Bangladesh and working with Bangladeshi people and business entities.

Related News:

South Korean Airlines flown over 150 flights to nowhere