

Pay form fill-up fees for HSC, equivalent exams through bKash

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 31 August, 2021

Dhaka: Students of HSC, Alim and equivalent examinations can pay their form fill-up fees through bKash from 'Sonali eSheba' app. This service will facilitate students and their guardians to make payment from anywhere without going to educational institutions.

This year's HSC admission process is going on through online till September 4.

Payment through bKash from 'Sonali eSheba' app is very convenient. Students need to click on 'bKash' icon from the app's 'Mobile Banking' option.

In next step, they need to enter bKash account number, bKash PIN and click on 'confirm' option.

To complete payment process, students have to enter verification code received through SMS.

Once payment is completed, users will get a confirmation message and can download payment slip from Sonali eSheba app.

bKash has made digital fee payment process easier eliminating the hassle of standing in long queues at bank counters or going to the educational institutions in the time of maintaining social distance and hygiene.

Not only academic fee payment, also payment of admission application fees and other fees through bKash have become popular.

At present, bKash is providing fee payment service to more than 600 public and private educational institutions across the country.
