Dhaka: Qatar Airways is now operating 28 weekly flights from Dhaka via Doha, announced the airline in a press release.

Effective June 7, the airline of the year - announced by SKYTRAX in 2021 - operates 28 weekly flights from Dhaka via its hub Doha offering reliable travel options to over 140 destinations worldwide.

“Experience our renowned five-star service and the highest standards of safety, whether on board or at our state-of-the-art Hamad International Airport in Doha,” said the airline in the release.

Qatar Airways is the state-owned flag carrier airline of Qatar. Headquartered in the Qatar Airways Tower in Doha, the airline operates a hub-and-spoke network, flying to over 140 international destinations across Africa, Asia, Europe, the Americas, and Oceania from its base at Hamad International Airport, using a fleet of more than 200 aircraft.

The carrier has been a member of the Oneworld alliance since October 2013, the first Persian Gulf carrier to sign with one of the three major airline alliances.
