

Qatar airways unveils 2026 Tennis packages

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 20 August, 2025

Dhaka: Qatar Airways, in partnership with Qatar Airways Holidays, has launched exclusive travel packages for the Qatar TotalEnergies Women's Open 2026 (8-14 February) and the Qatar ExxonMobil Men's Open 2026 (16-21 February), offering fans a premium way to experience top-tier tennis in Doha.

The packages include return flights, 4- or 5-star hotel stays, and Centre Court tickets in Upper, Middle, or Lower categories. Fans will also enjoy access to the fanzone, and can enhance their stay with airport transfers, cultural tours, and more.

Bookings are available at qatarairways.com/qatartennis on a first-come, first-served basis.

Tennis enthusiasts can witness elite matchups at one of the WTA 1000 and ATP 500 tour's most prestigious stops, all at the Khalifa

International Tennis Complex.

The 2025 tournaments saw Amanda Anisimova defeat World No.1 Aryna Sabalenka, while Andrey Rublev triumphed in a star-studded men's draw featuring Djokovic and Alcaraz.

Privilege Club members can earn or redeem Avios and Qpoints on both flights and the package value using Cash + Avios.

The initiative is part of Qatar Airways' expanding sports partnership portfolio, which includes major names such as FIFA, UEFA, Formula 1®, PSG, Novak Djokovic, MotoGP, and the Brooklyn Nets, among others.

Steven Reynolds, Senior Vice President of Qatar Airways Holidays & Discover Qatar, said, "We have once again introduced our tennis travel packages for what promises to be an exciting 2026 tennis season here in Doha.

With the Qatar TotalEnergies Women's Open and Qatar ExxonMobil Men's Open on the horizon, these packages offer seamless travel solutions and unmatched access to the action.

Our goal is to ensure that tennis fans enjoy every step of the journey when travelling through the award-winning Hamad International Airport with the World's Best Airline, as voted by Skytrax in 2025 for the ninth time."

-B