Dhaka: Radisson Blu Dhaka Water Garden won several top accolades at the South Asian Travel Awards 2024 held at Aloft in Kathmandu, Nepal. The awards showcase the hotel's commitment to delivering quality services while embracing environmentally responsible business operations.

Radisson Blu Dhaka Water Garden became the only hotel of Dhaka to secure the Gold Award in the Best Airport Hotel category, said a release. In addition, Radisson Blu Dhaka Water Garden also earned the Silver Award in the Eco-Friendly Hotel category.

Speaking on the occasion, Md Nazrul Islam, Director of Sales and Marketing, Radisson Blu Dhaka Water Garden, said, "We are truly honoured to be recognised by SATA, one of the most respected platforms in South Asia's travel and tourism sector. These awards are a testament to our continuous efforts to excel in both service and sustainability across all areas of our operations.”

As the region’s premier recognition for travel and hospitality excellence, SATA’s awards further solidify Radisson Blu Dhaka Water Garden’s reputation as a preferred choice for discerning travellers, concluded the release.
