

SalamAir announces direct flights on Muscat/Salalah-Prague route from Nov 4

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 25 October, 2022

Dhaka: Oman's budget carrier SalamAir will be launching direct flights to and from Prague, the capital of Czech Republic, from November 4, 2022.

The airline will operate two weekly flights on to Prague, one from Muscat and another from Salalah.

Offering the perfect opportunity to take the trip of a lifetime to the ultimate "city of a thousand spires", SalamAir flights to Prague departures are scheduled every Friday from Muscat and every Wednesday from Salalah.

The carrier, which operates a fleet of modern A320neo and A321neo, has selected the Czech Republic as its second destination in Europe. The new destination in its network marks the airline's further expansion into central Europe.

On the occasion, Captain Mohamed Ahmed, CEO, SalamAir, said, "We are very excited to connect Oman with the capital city of the Czech Republic. The new connection creates an excellent opportunity for the citizen of the Czech Republic to explore the warm weather in Oman and visit one of the most popular attraction sites in Muscat and Salalah, which support Oman's 2040 vision.”

“Similarly, Prague represents a fantastic destination for travellers in terms of beauty and culture. The city embraces its rich history and provides the perfect backdrop for a memorable trip. The city is known for transforming itself during the winter months. We are committed to opening every possible door to different markets, enabling travel, trade, and business while creating demand for new travellers looking to explore and experience unforgettable holidays.”

The journey between the city of Prague and Muscat will take about six hours and fifteen minutes.

Air tickets for this route and other flights of SalamAir can be purchased on the official website of the airline <https://www.salamair.com>, as well as accredited agencies of the air carrier.

- T