Dhaka: Sea Pearl Beach Resort and Spa Cox’s Bazar was named the global winner by 2022 World Luxury Hotel Awards in the category “Global Luxury Seaside Resort”, announced the hotel at a press conference held on January 18 at a city hotel in the capital.

The prestigious award was announced in Anatalya, Turkiye. The Resort’s Exclusive Spa also won the Best Luxury Health and Fitness Spa Award. Its Group General Manager Azeem Shah won the 2022 Best General Manager.

Winning three awards at The World Luxury Hotel Awards in a year is a big achievement for the hospitality industry of Bangladesh. This achievement uplifts Bangladesh, especially Cox’s Bazar, to the world tourism map and marks it as an international tourist destination, said the hotel management at the press conference.

Since inception, Sea Pearl Beach Resort and Spa has established itself as a luxury gateway from the busy life. It has become the best in Bangladesh in the hospitality space that sets the benchmark for world-class facilities and unsurpassed service standards, they added, said Azeem Shah, who won the best GM award.

This five-star category resort has 493 rooms and suites. Sea Pearl has nine restaurants, three Bars, six meeting and convention venues, two swimming pools, tennis and badminton, water park with 5D theater hall and many other facilities.
