

Singapore Airlines ramp up summer 2024 network

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 09 August, 2023

Singapore: Singapore Airlines (SIA) will mount up services to destinations across its network during the Summer 2024 operating season between March 31, 2024 to October 26, 2024.

This includes restoration of Airbus A380 services between Singapore and Frankfurt, deploying widebody Airbus A350-900 medium-haul aircraft on services to Cairns and Male, reinstating direct services between Singapore and Barcelona and increasing flight frequencies to pre-pandemic levels across multiple points.

Read More: Emirates cabin crew numbers cross 20,000

Destinations that will reach or exceed pre-pandemic levels of flight frequencies include Ahmedabad (India); Beijing and Shanghai (China); Copenhagen (Denmark); Danang (Vietnam); Darwin, Melbourne, and Perth (Australia); Dubai (the UAE); Tokyo-Haneda (Japan); as well as Seattle and Houston (the US).

- -B