Date: 29 March, 2025

Dhaka: A five-member team from Eastern Bank PLC. (EBL) is set for an expedition to Nepalese mountain Mera Peak under the bank's initiative "Beyond Limits: EBL Conquering Mera Peak." The EBL employee team will leave Dhaka for Nepal on April 5, 2025.

Extending his best wishes to the mountaineering team Ali Reza Iftekhar, Managing Director and CEO of EBL, said, "At EBL, we believe in going beyond limits—not just in banking, but in life. This expedition is a testament to our employees' courage, dedication, and adventurous spirit. We are incredibly proud to support their journey and wish them success in reaching new heights."

The five-member team consists of Samjid Al Asad, Manaf Hussain, Sadik Ahmed Chowdhury, Lincoln Raymond Costa and Md. Imran Hossain. They have undergone rigorous training to prepare for the extreme conditions of high-altitude mountaineering. By conquering this peak, the team aims to inspire fellow employees and adventure enthusiasts nationwide.

As EBL continues to champion employee engagement, wellness, and extraordinary experiences, "Beyond Limits: EBL Conquering Mera Peak" stands as an example of the bank's commitment to growth—both personal and professional. The expedition symbolizes EBL's core values of leadership, perseverance, and the pursuit of excellence.

Sitting at an altitude of 6,476 meters, Mera Peak is quite popular among mountain trekkers. It provides the opportunity for expedition lovers to test their endurance and determination.
