

A wide-angle photograph of the Kaaba in the Grand Mosque of Mecca. The Kaaba is a large, black, cuboid structure with gold-colored bands and doorways. It is surrounded by a large, open, white-tiled courtyard where hundreds of pilgrims, mostly men in white ihram clothing, are walking in a counter-clockwise direction. The background shows the multi-tiered, arched architecture of the mosque's interior, with many levels of balconies and arches. The lighting is bright, reflecting off the polished floor.
