Dhaka: US-Bangla Airlines was honored with the Gold trophy in the Domestic Airline of the Year 2024 category at the ShareTrip–Monitor Airline of the Year Awards, held at Pan Pacific Sonargaon Dhaka on July 5.

The accolade reinforces US-Bangla’s position as the leading carrier in Bangladesh’s rapidly growing aviation market, based on votes from thousands of frequent flyers across the country. Established in 2014, US-Bangla Airlines has grown into the largest private airline in Bangladesh in terms of fleet size and flight frequency.

The Silver and Bronze awards in the domestic category were won by NOVOAIR and Biman Bangladesh Airlines respectively—recognizing their continued commitment to serving domestic travelers with reliability and care.

On the other hand, with its Dash 8-Q400 turboprops, the national flag carrier Biman serves most domestic routes while also maintaining an expansive international network. The airline has been undergoing modernization efforts in recent years and continues to play a vital role in connecting the country's regional hubs.

The recognition of US-Bangla Airlines, NOVOAIR, and Biman highlights the growing quality, competition, and innovation in the sector—signaling promising prospects for regional air connectivity.
