

Vistara to start 2 daily services in Bengaluru

- A Monitor Desk Report

Date: 01 April, 2024

Bengaluru: Full-service carrier Vistara will start two new daily services in the Thiruvananthapuram-Bengaluru sector from today (April 1).

IndiGo and Air India Express airlines currently operate eight services daily on this route. With the arrival of Vistara, the total number of services will be 10, the international airport here said in a statement on Sunday (March 31). The first flight (UK 524) will depart Thiruvananthapuram at 05:55 AM and arrive in Bengaluru at 07:15 AM, it said.

It will leave Bengaluru at 10:40 PM and reach Thiruvananthapuram at 11:40 PM. The second flight (UK 525) will depart from Bengaluru at 08:15 AM and reach Thiruvananthapuram at 09:30 AM, the statement said adding that it would fly back at 10:10 AM and reach Bengaluru at 11:20 AM.

