Date: 26 April, 2025

Dhaka: Salahuddin Sumon, a popular travel content creator and adventurer, is planning another trip to Mount Kailash and Manasarovar this coming June. He will lead a group of adventure and spiritual tourists, organized by Bengal Vista, a leading tour operating company in Bangladesh.

Sharing his previous adventure experience, Sumon said, "Touching Mount Kailash was one of the most profound moments of my life. It is a place where the soul feels the purest connection to the divine. I experienced rare emotions that are beyond words. Tibet is indeed a land of dreams."

"This time, the adventure will not be limited to Kailash and Manasarovar. I will guide tourists through the majestic Everest Base Camp, the ancient city of Lhasa, vibrant Kunming, and other important spiritual and historical landmarks across Tibet, offering a complete and unforgettable Tibetan experience.”

Bengal Vista is a new initiative by Bengal Visa. The tour operating company offers tourism enthusiast extraordinary experiences by exploring new destinations.

During the Tibet expedition, Sumon will be accompanied by another adventurer—the Executive Director of Bengal Vista.
