

Tourifye marks five years of innovation redefining hotel inventory, travel technology

- A Monitor Report

Date: 01 January, 2026

Dhaka: In a rapidly evolving travel technology landscape, few companies have managed to distinguish themselves as decisively as Tourifye, a rising force in hotel inventory management and room distribution solutions. As the company celebrates its fifth year of operation, it continues to reinforce its position as a global travel-tech powerhouse, offering hotels, travel agencies, and online travel platforms a complete ecosystem of advanced technological solutions.

From the beginning, Tourifye set out with a clear mission to streamline the way hotels manage and monetize their room inventory while ensuring maximum revenue and operational efficiency.

Tourifye has built its reputation on reliability, accuracy, and a relentless commitment to client success.

Over the past five years, the company has not only fulfilled this mission but expanded far beyond it.

It has engineered a sophisticated system that enables hotels to efficiently create, organize, and distribute their inventory across multiple channels.

This technology not only improves operational efficiency but also ensures that hotels achieve maximum profitability through optimized room sales.

At the heart of Tourifye's growth is its ability to foster strong, dependable relationships with its partner hotels. The company prides itself on being more than a service provider; it acts as a strategic ally. Hotels working with Tourifye gain more than inventory tools - they gain a support system that operates with clockwork precision, 24 hours a day, without compromise.

Khadiza Rimi, Operation Manager of Tourifye stated, "Our goal has always been to empower the hotelier. We don't just act as a middleman; we act as a growth engine. We want hotels to feel confident that they can rely on us completely, whether it's managing their real-time inventory or maximizing their revenue potential."

What has allowed Tourifye to thrive is not only its technology, but its long-term vision.

As global travel rebounds and demand rises for flexible, data-driven platforms, Tourifye has positioned itself as a trusted global connector - linking 10 million hotels, 2000 agencies, and travelers through efficient, scalable, and integrated technology.