

Z Kabir's 'Travel Around' Season 2 is on

- A Monitor Report

Date: 16 July, 2025

Dhaka : Popular travel show "Travel Around" is back on screen with Season Two, hosted and directed by seasoned journalist Zulhas Kabir.

The show airs every Saturday at 3:30 pm on Channel 24, and has already begun to attract a loyal following among viewers.

The upcoming third episode, set to broadcast on Saturday, July 19, will spotlight Redang Island, one of Malaysia's most scenic and beloved travel destinations. This episode will delve into the island's history, heritage, natural beauty, and offer practical tips on how to explore the island affordably.

For Season 2, Zulhas Kabir recently completed filming in several countries including the United States of America, United Arab Emirates, Maldives, Sri Lanka, Malaysia, Singapore, Japan, Switzerland, France, Italy, and several other countries across Europe. Each episode offers more than just picturesque visuals, it showcases transportation, accommodation, food costs, and cultural nuances, alongside historical narratives about each location.

The first episode of the season covered the breathtaking landscapes of Switzerland, while the second episode featured the awe-inspiring Niagara Falls in the United States.

What makes "Travel Around" stand out is its focus on real-world travel guidance. Each episode answers essential traveler questions: How to go? What to see? Where to stay? What to eat? This practical format allows the show to serve as a comprehensive travel guide for tourists.

Looking ahead, Zulhas Kabir shared plans to produce future episodes featuring both local and international destinations, with a special focus on showcasing Bangladesh in a new light to attract global tourists.
